

Proclamation

Whereas, Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid has been serving the low-income, under-privileged and abused individuals and families in communities across Central Minnesota for 100 years; and

Whereas, Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid has worked to keep an untold number of Minnesotans safe from abuse, discrimination, eviction and exploitation; and

Whereas, Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid has fought tirelessly in the legislature to ensure even the most disadvantaged and poverty-stricken Minnesotan has the opportunity to improve their life and support their family; and

Whereas, Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid has worked to ensure that every Minnesotan has a chance to contribute to their community, and to be self-sufficient; and

Whereas, Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid continues to serve its communities by developing innovative programs that provide a more comprehensive response to their needs; and

Whereas, Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid has since its founding been a part of the city of Minneapolis business community, providing a foundation for our most challenged citizens to gain the stability that will place them on the pathway out of poverty;

Now, therefore I, R.T. Rybak, Mayor of the City of Minneapolis, do hereby proclaim Monday, April 15, 2013 as

Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid Day in the City of Minneapolis
