

Housing Discrimination Law Project

FAIR HOUSING RESOURCES

Housing discrimination is against the law. At Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid, we work to ensure safe and stable housing conditions are met. This means helping to:

- Get accommodations for a disability
- Prevent unlawful lockouts
- Prevent utility shutoffs
- Secure emergency repairs
- Seek emergency rent assistance
- Stop discrimination
- Stop evictions
- Stop sexual harassment

TREATED UNFAIRLY? CALL OR FILE A COMPLAINT

- Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid provides free legal help to people with limited income, people who are 60 and older or people who have a disability.
- Call 612-334-5970 or 1-800-292-4150.
- Legal Aid intake specialists will determine eligibility. If you're not eligible, we will make every effort to provide resources.

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Housing Discrimination Hotline

- Call 1-800-669-9777.

Minnesota Department of Human Rights

- Call 1-833-454-0148.
- Report discrimination online:
mn.gov/mdhr/intake/consultationinquiryform

Minneapolis Complaint Investigation Division

- Call 311.
- Search Discrimination Complaint Form on minneapolismn.gov.

St. Paul Department of Human Rights and Equal Economic Opportunity

- Call 651-266-8966.
- Email hrightscomplaints@ci.stpaul.mn.us

MORE RESOURCES

- lawhelpmn.org
- mylegalaid.org

Government agencies investigate complaints of housing discrimination free of charge.