

Our people

“Working at MMLA gives you an opportunity to go to work each day with colleagues who are committed to positive change. We work hard for our clients and also recognize the need for balance to avoid burnout.”

*-Julia Zwak
Managing Attorney*

“Legal Aid is a perfect fit for me. I use my Spanish skills and my education to assist members of the community I grew up in. I was already familiar with MMLA’s work and I wanted to be a part of it.”

-Belkis Hernandez, Bilingual Paralegal

Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid is a nonprofit law firm providing free legal help to people with limited means, disabilities and individuals 60 and older. We are home to the Minnesota Disability Law Center, the state’s Protection & Advocacy organization. Our roots in Minnesota are vast, with more than 100 years of experience helping those in our community access civil legal aid.

Our fight for justice

At Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid, the work we do is more than a paycheck. It's about helping our most vulnerable community members: the parent and children who need to leave a violent home; the neighbor who just lost a job and needs help getting health care and unemployment insurance; the grandparent in need of a Health Care Directive. It's about justice and inclusion for our clients and coworkers and making a difference in our communities.

Student opportunities

Countless undergraduates and law students get their career start with us as interns and law clerks. Be one of them! Check our employment listings for fall, spring and summer positions.
